BONIFACIO, FRANCE

LISBON, PORTUGAL

BARCELONA, SPAIN

MEDITERRANEAN

FEATURED PORTS

MONTE CARLO

Monaco is the epitome of Riviera chic. This tony enclave overlooks a sheltered marina full of lavish yachts gathered from around the world, pursuing the best life has to offer. The famous Casino ostentatiously invites one and all to try their luck.

BARCELONA

The medieval atmosphere of Barcelona's Gothic Quarter and its elegant boulevards combine to make Spain's second-largest city one of Europe's most fascinating and beautiful. The Catalan spirit thrives in bold artistic strokes like Gaudí's Sagrada Familia church.

SÈTE

Pretty Sète hugs tiny Mont St.-Clair, crisscrossed by numerous canals and connected with 12 bridges. The town gives access to two intact medieval fortified towns, Carcassonne and Aigues-Mortes, and the important university city of Montpellier.

AJACCIO

Some Corsicans still feel allegiances to Italy, others are happy as French. In Ajaccio, walk around by yourself and someone will proudly show you Napoleon's birthplace. Or take a drive into the wild and rugged outback countryside they call the maquis.

IBIZA

Ibiza grew from a little-known island into a playground for the idle rich and bohemian artists in the 20th century. But the island also boasts a more rustic side with its own protected UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.

PALMA DE MALLORCA

Spain's sunny Mediterranean outpost is a pleasant spot boasting a shady plaza near the Gothic Cathedral. Perhaps journey to the enchanting village of Valldemossa, but leave time to shop for false (but lovely) majorica pearls and handmade lace.

CASABLANCA

The seaside Hassan II Mosque is capable of holding 25,000 worshippers inside, and another 80,000 in the courtyard. Visit the Medina to sample Moroccan culture, or opt for longer UNESCO Partner Tours to imperial Rabat or colorful Marrakech.

CANNES

From Cannes, the sunny splendor of the Riviera is yours to enjoy. Travel along the scenic corniche to Nice and Monte Carlo, or venture into the Alpes de Provence to visit Grasse's perfume factories or the charming medieval village of St-Paul-de-Vence.

PORTOFINO

Portofino is a popular, picturesque resort village on the Italian Riviera, favored by artists and travelers for its breathtaking views of villas arrayed like an immense, colorful amphitheater on steep slopes above a cerulean bay.

BORDEAUX

Sail from the Atlantic up the Gironde estuary into the Garonne River to stately old Bordeaux, the starting point for many exciting excursions into the surrounding wine-producing regions – some of the most famous in the world.

BANDOL

Tucked into a sheltered bay around the corner from busy, bustling Marseille, Bandol possesses a quiet charm that is rare on the fashionable Côte d'Azur. Its popular beachy side is along the Anse de Renecros.

ST. TROPEZ

The modern glamour never really deserts this town famous for Bardot and a film festival, but the venerable village perched of Grimaud in the nearby Maures Massif has an 11th-century Grimaud Castle with links to Monaco's ruling Grimaldis.

PORTOVENERE

The "Golfo dei Poeti," inspired Dante, Petrarch, Byron and Shelley with ancient houses and a dominant 12th-century citadel. Explore the grotto where Byron pondered, or climb the castle beside St. Peter's church for a view of the Cinque Terre villages.

SANARY-SUR-MER

The rarest thing on the Côte d'Azur is a working fishing town. On tiny Embiez island offshore is an environmental winery created by the heir of the Ricard pastis company, with strict conservation policies.

AMALFI

Amalfi and Positano are the main towns on the famous Amalfi Drive, Italy's most romantic road, clinging to rocky cliffs plunging to the sea. The excavated ruins of Pompeii bear moving witness to a Roman city suddenly entombed by volcanic ash.

PRE- AND POST-VOYAGE LAND-BASED EXTENSIONS

UNESCO TREASURES OF TUSCANY

5-DAY PRE- OR POST-VOYAGE JOURNEY

CIVITAVECCHIA TO ROME (OR REVERSE)

The voluptuous hills of Tuscany, crowned by towered medieval towns and draped in verdant velvet fields and ancient vineyards, make an iconic image of Italy. Don't miss the opportunity to experience one of the world's most romantic realms on this intimate, unforgettable journey.

UNESCO GEMS OF PORTUGAL

4-DAY PRE- OR POST-VOYAGE JOURNEY FROM LISBON

Portugal is one Europe's oldest countries. Visit the ancient, vibrant city of Porto and explore the Douro Valley – the world's oldest wine-producing region. Wonder at Fatima's sacred pilgrimage site and the medieval university town of Coimbra – and experience Portugal's wonderful cuisines and friendly people.

ADRIATIC & GREEK ISLES

Discover Greece, Italy, Turkey, the Dalmatian coast and beyond on board one of four ships, sailing bespoke 7-, 10- and 11-day voyages. Many voyages can be combined to create unique 14- to 24-day combinations for more in-depth exploration. New port calls this season include Trogir, the island of Vis, and La Ciotat.

EPHESUS, TURKEY

ADRIATIC & GREEK ISLES

FEATURED PORTS

CRETE

This charming village is beautifully situated on the sparkling Gulf of Mirabello. From the picturesque Venetian harbor, explore Crete highlights including the monastery of Kera, the Lassithi Plain windmills, and the ancient Minoan city of Knossos.

VENICE

Its domes and campaniles rising from the placid lagoon, enchanting Venice truly offers an atmosphere that exists nowhere else. The entire city, with its 177 canals, 400 bridges and its lagoon islands are a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

PÁTAMOS

According to myth, Artemis and Apollo entreated to Zeus to raise Pátmos from the sea. It is a UNESCO World Heritage Site important to Christian history. A monastery overlooks a cave believed to be where St. John wrote the biblical Book of Revelations.

KUŞADASI

This humble Turkish town is a gateway for Ephesus, renowned in antiquity. The ornate Library of Celsus, the Temple of Artemis (Diana) and the Theater, where Paul addressed the Ephesians, are all connected by shining marble streets.

SÁMI

This lovely harbor on Cephalonia is close to Antisamos beach, the setting for the film Captain Corelli's Mandolin, the ethereal beauty of the underground lake in Melissani Cave, and to the ruins of ancient Sámi, occupied for millennia.

ISTANBUL

Byzantium's domes and minarets are unmistakable. This is the Golden Horn, the door between East and West. Hagia Sophia, the Blue Mosque and Topkapi Sarai await — as does the Grand Bazaar, laden with carpets, beaten brass and spices from afar.

SANTORÍNI

Santoríni's anchorage, between sheer walls of a collapsed volcanic caldera, is an iconic Greek isles harbor. Ascend to Thira, the gleaming white town at the top, or continue to atmospheric Oia for breathtaking views.

SPÉTSAI

“The Isle of the Aromas” in the Saronic Gulf is a delight to the senses. The elegant old town is a yachtsman's paradise, with a stunning harbor and Venetian-style mansions, including the museum/home of the revolutionary heroine Bouboulina.

SKÍATHOS

Skíathos is a popular Sporades island blessed with forests, fruit and olive orchards, and vineyards. Its 60 beaches include the famous Koukounaries and remote Lalaria with its picturesque rock arch.

ŠIBENIK

The domed 15th-century St. James Cathedral is the largest all-stone church in the world. It and St. Nicholas Fortress are both UNESCO World Heritage sites. Inland from the Dalmatian coast are the picturesque cascades and pools of Krka National Park.

JERUSALEM, ISRAEL

SYRACUSE

Its incredible wealth of well-preserved historic monuments, spanning the Greek, Roman, Byzantine, Ottoman and Baroque eras prompted UNESCO to name the entire city of Syracuse a World Heritage Site.

MONEMVASIA

Its name means 'one entrance' and this tall isle has only one way in. Honeycombed with grottoes, narrow alleys and rock-carved rooms, the narrow pathways lead up to the Byzantine Ayia Sophia church, and a medieval fortress and walls.

ASHDOD

Drive across the rocky hills to Jerusalem, a city sacred to three of the world's great religions. The sights are endless, from the modern Knesset building to the Dome of the Rock, the Western Wall, Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Yad Vashem Memorial Museum.

DUBROVNIK

This UNESCO World Heritage Site is a living, breathing museum with perfectly preserved palaces, chapels, monastic cloisters and Europe's second-oldest synagogue crowded into the marble-paved streets between its ancient medieval walls.

KOTOR

A cluster of medieval towns hug the sinuous shores of the Bay of Kotor. Winding picturesquely between two looming massifs, it is one of Europe's most breathtaking harbors. Together, they comprise a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

2022 ADRIATIC & GREEK ISLES JOURNEYS

PRE- AND POST-VOYAGE LAND-BASED EXTENSIONS

UNESCO TREASURES OF THE HOLY LAND

4-DAY PRE-VOYAGE ROUND-TRIP HAIFA (TEL AVIV, NAZARETH)

Within its compact territory, Israel preserves an astonishing wealth of sites considered sacred by adherents to three of the world's great religions. Ancient Jaffa and modern Tel Aviv, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, the Dead Sea and the evocative fortress of Masada are just a few of the highlights of your Journey in the Holy Land.

UNESCO JEWELS OF ANCIENT GREECE

5-DAY PRE- OR POST-VOYAGE JOURNEY ROUND-TRIP PIRAEUS

Trace the history of Western Civilization through beautiful and evocative remnants scattered across the Greek mainland. On the Argolian Peloponnese, visit Corinth, Epidaurus, Mycenae and lovely Venetian Náplion. Wander the slopes of Mt. Parnassus at Delphi, scale the astonishing 'Monasteries in the Air' at Meteora – and ascend to the Parthenon on Athens' Acropolis.

VENICE SIMPLON-ORIENT-EXPRESS

6-DAY PRE-VOYAGE LONDON TO VENICE

The overnight journey from London to Venice in an Orient-Express rail carriage is like La Belle Époque preserved in amber. A precious remnant of a past golden age is yours to experience and remember always – on your way to embark your Seabourn voyage in the Venice Lagoon.

UNESCO LAKESIDE GEMS OF THE SWISS ALPS

6-DAY PRE- OR POST-VOYAGE ZURICH TO VENICE (OR REVERSE)

The rapturous beauty of Switzerland's alpine lakes made them a requisite element of the European Grand Tour. Add these enchanting and unforgettable landscapes to your store of precious European memories.

A scenic view of a Norwegian fjord village. The foreground shows a calm blue body of water. The middle ground features a cluster of colorful houses, including red, yellow, and white buildings, some with gabled roofs. The background consists of steep, green mountains with patches of snow on the peaks under a blue sky with scattered white clouds.

NORTHERN EUROPE

Sail onboard Seabourn Quest or Seabourn Ovation on 7- and 14-day voyages exploring The Baltic, British Isles, Norwegian fjords, the North Cape and more. Most sailings depart Dover (London), Stockholm or Copenhagen providing ease of access, and overnight stays include iconic St. Petersburg, Amsterdam, Paris and Bordeaux.

ST. PETERSBURG, RUSSIA

NORTHERN EUROPE

FEATURED PORTS

ZEEBRUGGE

This is our portal to the fairytale charms of Bruges. Laced by canals and bristling with confectionary gothic steeples, its historic center is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Further afield is the capital of Brussels, headquarters of the European Union.

ANTWERP

Europe's second-largest port suits this Belgian city of wealthy traders. Its 16th-century Bourse was the world's first commodity trading exchange, and it is still the premier diamond trading center. Remnant examples of fine homes are preserved throughout the city.

KRISTIANSAND

Brightly painted traditional wooden houses decorate the Posebyen Old Town section of Norway's southernmost town. Stroll from the 17th-century Gothic cathedral down to the Bystranda white sand city beach, lined with palm trees.

COPENHAGEN

From the hearty waterfront cheer of Nyhavn to the serenity of Rosenborg and Amalienborg castles, wonderful Copenhagen is a charmer. Shop 'til you drop on the Stroget walking street, and visit fanciful Tivoli amusement park.

ST. PETERSBURG

Russia's main Baltic port boasts a tsar's ransom of architecture, palaces and art, with canals reminiscent of Venice, a boulevard evoking Paris, and a uniquely Russian spirit. Three days is just enough to begin taking it all in.

STORSTAPPEN ISLAND

Puffins, auks, razorbills, gannets and guillemots pack the crenelated cliffs of towering, 928-foot Storstappen. On an optional Ventures by Seabourn excursion, join our Expedition Team naturalist and you can cruise by Zodiac® along the shoreline for a front row seat to this astonishing array of birdlife nesting and sheltering in the cliffs.

LOEN (OLDEN)

From this quaint village on the shore of Nordfjord, a Skylift cable car ascends 3,300-foot Mt. Hovenfor, offering breathtaking views of peaks and glaciers. The village is the popular gateway to the sprawling Jostedalsgreen National Park's glaciers and waterfalls. Join an optional Ventures by Seabourn excursion to explore the magnificent fjord landscape of steep mountains, rolling farmlands and splendid waterfalls at sea-level by Zodiac® or kayak.

FARSUND

Southern Norway's Lista Peninsula is filigreed with fjords and waterways such as Lygdalsfjorden. It is popular with vacationers for its beaches and prolific birdlife, as well as hiking trails and historic events such as the pirate festival. For the best view of the spectacular coastline, venture into the many channels and waterways near the town of Farsund by Zodiac® with our expert Expedition Team as your guide, on an optional Ventures by Seabourn excursion.

HONNINGSVÅG

A fishing town in winter, summer visitors flock to the North Cape cliffs on the windswept island of Magerøy nearby, marking the very top of the European continent. In summer, too, the Sámi and their reindeer settle near the town.

KAYAKING IN OLDEN, NORWAY

HONNINGSVAG, NORWAY

LOFOTEN, NORWAY

TROMSØ

Located 200 miles north of the Arctic Circle, Tromsø basks in the midnight sun during summer months. Notable landmarks include the distinctive Arctic Cathedral, the Tromsø University Museum and the unique Polar Museum.

SVOLVAER (LOFOTEN)

Fishermen flock to the towering Lofoten islands in winter, and artists adore their picturesque, rugged peaks, shining seas and extraordinary light. Cruise by Zodiac® to explore this scenic archipelago from hidden channels that are only accessible to small craft. Or join our kayak guide to paddle the waterways in the vicinity of Svolvær – the picturesque capital of the Lofoten islands.

STOCKHOLM

Sweden's lovely capital sprawls over 14 islands linked by over 50 bridges. Sail in through an archipelago of myriad islands, each with its own red-painted sauna and family boat. Gamla Stan is the city's oldest section, dating from the Hanseatic era.

BELFAST

Belfast's center is an attractive place with street musicians and a revitalized river front. Visit Titanic Belfast, the star-shaped repository of all things RMS Titanic.

EDINBURGH

Dominated by Edinburgh Castle, this picturesque city offers shopping on Princes Street, the grandeur of the Royal Mile, St. Giles Cathedral and historic Palace of Holyroodhouse.

ÅLESUND, NORWAY

AMSTERDAM

A wealth of historic, artistic and cultural marvels makes this city a magnet for visitors. Take a multi-language canal tour, marvel at the Rijksmuseum's bounty of art treasures and visit the moving and evocative Anne Frank House.

CHERBOURG

The seaport and naval station of Cherbourg is on the English Channel northwest of Paris. It gives easy access to the City of Light, Monet's home and gardens at Giverny, Rouen and other attractions in the Normandy region.

OBAN

McCaig's Tower dominates a cliff above picturesque Oban, and castles such as Dunollie and Dunnstafnage top nearby heights. Travel to one or more of the eighteen "Glorious Gardens of Argyll" that surround the town.

ÅLESUND

Following a fire in 1904, Ålesund was rebuilt in the Art Nouveau style. Its towers and turrets, backed by the Sunnmøre Alps, make it one of the loveliest towns in Norway. Explore this picture-perfect town and the islands that surround it by kayak, with our expedition team's kayak expert as your guide.

HELSINKI

Your day in Finland's capital may include a visit to the great gray Lutheran Cathedral and the Temppeliaukio Church carved out of solid granite. Shop for Finnish design (Marimekko, Iittala) on the Esplanadi, leading up from Market Square.

FEATURED PORTS

REYKJAVÍK

Reykjavík traces its history back to A.D. 870. It was one of the first permanent Norse settlements in Iceland. Colorful rooftops and the elegant spire of Hallgrímskirkja Church are dwarfed by its mountainous backdrop.

HEIMAEY

The Westman Islands are among Nature's youngest geologic creations. Heimaey's shape and size were drastically changed by a 1973 eruption. Eldheimar is a museum with history of the eruption and an excavated house. The bird cliffs of Heimaey Island are a great place to see puffins, as they nest here in astonishing numbers. Take on optional Zodiac® cruise to the small inner bay near the town and cruise along the cliffs for an up-close view.

NEWFOUNDLAND

From St. Anthony, visit L'Anse aux Meadows, the ancient Viking UNESCO World Heritage archaeological site. The capital, St. John's, is one of North America's oldest cities, a granite harbor surrounded by hills at the continent's easternmost point.

QAQORTOQ (JULIANEHÅB)

Founded in 1775, Qaqortoq has colonial-period architecture and shops offering traditional Greenland Inuit arts. Ventures by Seabourn optional excursions include visiting the Hvalsey Viking site by Zodiac® or kayaking the fjord.

FUNCHAL

Madeira's slopes are always bright with flowers in the island's eternal springtime climate. You may want to try some of the famous local malmsey wine before careening down steep Funchal streets aboard a wicker sled.

MARTINIQUE

In Martinique's fashionable capital, the ornate Schoelcher Library faces a statue of Napoleon's first Empress Josephine, born on a Martinique plantation. Visit ghostly Saint-Pierre, nearly inundated by the volcanic eruption of Mt. Pelée in 1902.

STAFFA

Staffa is a volcanic island in the Scottish Inner Hebrides, which has achieved international renown for its bizarre geologic formations, particularly a feature known as Fingal's Cave which has drawn celebrities and crowned heads since the 18th century. Cruise the island up close by Zodiac® to view the natural beauty of the basalt columns and the island's main sea cavern, Fingal Cave.

TOBERMORY

Duart Castle, near Tobermory on Scotland's Isle of Mull, is one of the oldest castles in Scotland, and nearby Glengorm Castle is scenically situated overlooking the sea. The small Tobermory Distillery makes a distinctive single malt whisky.

VIGUR

Vigur has a great reputation among birdwatchers. The harmonious gathering of thousands of birds completes the beautiful landscape – it is a must see. Eider ducks, Arctic terns, puffins, black guillemot and more, make their homes here. There is no better way to experience the island and its wildlife than from the water on an optional Ventures by Seabourn Zodiac® excursion.

PRINCE CHRISTIAN SOUND

A highlight of Greenland scenic cruising: your ship threads a narrow, 60-mile passage between towering peaks. Minke, fin and blue whales are frequently seen, as well as seals hauled out on floating ice. It is a breathtaking display of the rugged vernacular of rock, ice and sea unique to the arctic.

NANORTALIK (ILIVILEQ)

One of Greenland's larger towns, Nanortalik's open air museum of old pioneer buildings demonstrates early Greenland life. Exhilarating Ventures by Seabourn® excursions in Zodiacs® and kayaks make for an unforgettable adventure.

YOUR OCEAN-FRONT SUITE, A GRACIOUS HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Enter your spacious, light-filled suite to discover Welcome Champagne awaiting you on ice, and an in-suite bar fully stocked with your preferences. Tastefully designed and curated, most suites open onto private verandas.
